

Little Darling

The Rubettes

Don't you know I love you little darling?
Want the world to know now little darling.
Can't live without your precious love
Can't do without it any more little darling

Put your arms around me little darling
Tell me that you want me little darling.
Can't live without your precious love
Can't do without it any more little darling

Little darling you showed me how
Gave me true loving now
So don't let's change it or rearrange it

Don't you know I love you little darling?
Want the world to know now little darling.
Can't live without your precious love
Can't do without it any more little darling

Little darling be mine say you'll love me
Always forever for all time

Put your arms around me little darling
Tell me that you want me little darling.
Can't live without your precious love
Can't do without it any more little darling