

Back Bone

The Rumble Strips

Back bone
Back bone
Please don't leave me all alone

Oh my
Oh my
Listen to your goods boy
Run for your life

And what a fool I've been
It's only words in the walls
Words in the wind

They tell me everything
It's only words in the walls
Words in the wind

What's that
what's that
My love don't love me right back

Oh well
Oh well
You got my back bone
Take my heart as well

And it's a perfect sin
It's only words in the walls
Words in the wind

Fly away I leave your sting
It's only words in the walls
Words in the wind

She don't mean it
She don't mean it
She ain't speakin'
She's just sleepin'

Heart beat
Heart beat
Good luck pumping concrete

Oh well
Oh well
Listen to your backbone
Boy I'd run like hell

And it's a perfect sin
It's only words in the walls
Words in the wind

They tell me everything
It's only words in the walls
Words in the wind

It's so easy

It's so easy
and I'm leavin'
I'm leavin'

What a fool I've been
It's only words in the walls
Words in the wind

Fly away I leave your sting
It's only words in the walls
Words in the wind
