

Hate Me (You Do)

The Rumble Strips

My television
Your television in different rooms
I can hear you laughing
Can you hear me laughing too?

You hate me you do
You hate me you do

I'm knocking on your wall
I'm knocking on your wall in time to a record you play
But I know you're thinking
I can't keep a rhythm

You hate me you do
You hate me you do

I can feel it burnin'
I can feel it burnin'
You're gonna burn down this flat
The air's so thick, I choking on it and
I'm crushing my ribs with a baseball bat

I won't work
You won't work
Ain't life just like one long holiday
