Eine Kleine Middle Klasse Musik

The Rutles

Look at all the nice things money can buy Every day there's more and more Do you ever stop and wonder why You're neither rich nor poor

Eine kleine middle klasse musik

Dropping off the school kids in the second car Parking on the yellow line Getting in the shopping on a credit card Knowing how to choose a wine

Proud of your home and your neighborhood It's so up and coming that you feel so good

This is freedom in a land of plenty
You get nowhere if you just stand still
You got to hold on to what you got as best you can
'Cause if you don't someone else will

Look at all the nice things money can buy Every day there's more and more Do you ever stop and wonder why You need to lock your door

Loneliness is all that people ever share Smuggling their pain through nothing to declare Living next to people who agree to disagree Happy in a pie-chart society
