

Imperfect But Ours

The Saddest Landscape

I know that times are getting hard. All our friends can't find jobs, and heat costs more than we can afford, but I'm not giving up. The clouds may never part for us like they used to, but I am still not giving up on us. We've got mixtapes and we've got heartache, we've got memories we haven't made yet. We've got nights under covers under stars, and we've got days that we never want to end. And I promise we will miss all of this someday. And I promise we will miss these days. And I still remember what it felt like waking next to you, and I still remember the feeling of your breath on my hair. I still remember what it felt like to have you here, and I still remember everything about our lives. And I will always be there to hold you up, and I will always forgive you when we fight, and after all this time I have learned that all those wishes lead to was bad decisions and failure. But you are the one thing that I got right.
