

A Minor Aversion

The Saints

I've taken all I can I'm not going to stand here & be walked on anymore
'cause I don't need you these days your facts they don't mean a thing You think I am going to walk the line believe your lies all the time you don't make me your fool anymore I've waited so long you kept me here with all the lies you told You think that I will stay the same you think you got me Don't you know this thing can't last Don't you know that time will pass your dreams are not your own anymore I've waiting for too long I've been watching & I'm not wrong
I'm not waiting anymore
