

Down The Drain

The Saints

Well I might as well be certified crazy the way I'm going I might as well be insane One day down & the next I am floating high as a kite my feet don't touch the ground From a penthouse apartment to the depths of the ocean In a greasy mood I go out on the town seems like I could be forgiven for thinking that my time has come lord I am ready to drown Still I trhink it's better to stand out in the rain than go slipping on down the drain Well if you see me around when your world is crumbling give me a call & I'll be along I know that we are all islands but I'll swim across & we can talk about it all
Still I trhink it's better
to stand out in the rain
than go slipping on down the drain
