

Lipstick On Your Collar

The Saints

When you left me all alone at the record hop
You said you were going out for a soda pop
You were gone for quite a while, half an hour or more
You came back and man-o-man this is what I saw
Lipstick on your collar it told a tale on you, yeah
Lipstick on your collar, it says you were untrue
Bet your bottom dollar you and I are through
'Cause lipstick on your collar, it told a tale on you
You said it belonged to me it made me stop to think
An' then I noticed yours was red and mine was baby pink An' then who walked in but Mary Jane, her lipstick all a mess
Were you smoochin' my best friend? I guess the answer's yeah yeah!
Lipstick on your collar it told a tale on you, yeah
Lipstick on your collar, it says you were untrue
Bet your bottom dollar you and I are through
'Cause lipstick on your collar, it told a tale on you Come on now!
And then I noticed yours was red but mine was baby pink
And then walked in Mary Jane, lipstick all a mess
yeah yeah!
Lipstick on your collar it told a tale on you, yeah
Lipstick on your collar, it says you were untrue
Bet your bottom dollar you and I are through
'Cause lipstick on your collar, it told a tale on you
Baby, it told a tale on you
Honey it told a tale on you
Sugar it told a tale on you
Cha cha cha!
