

Memories Are Made of This

The Saints

Aren't you a mess you shouldn't act like this you stand right there & laugh in my face you ask me why I haven't left Are you feeling fine
have you really got the time to bother to write one line don't lay you on the line it's easy to be the missing link You're living your life in a chain gang you're so well guarded
You're living your life in a chain gang you're so retarded
Are you feeling fine
it's easy when you're the missing link Are you feeling brave you might dig your own grave use the money that you save lose the money that you save You shout out they're all the wrong answers You're waiting for someone who will never come You're waiting to hear someone who won't even call You're living etc etc...
