

One Way Street

The Saints

On the left on the right it's all the same people everywhere are still playing the same old game for a dime they put you down lay you in your grave put you down when you are not around drives you insane
That's why I gotta get some changes made Honey want to rearrange some day c'mon little girl my mind is getting sick of today Uptown downtown acting just like you should even if you play their game it won't do you no good there are too many creeps out there hungry for your blood they put you down when you are not around
drives you insane
That's why etc etc...
Dont know why sometimes I don't feel like trying seeing everybody just drives me mad if they don't like it I guess that's just too bad it's just driving me mad.....
