

See You In Paradise

The Saints

When the world is cold & dark & the rain comes don't let it fall on me in a world as cold as ice I keep a fire burning just to keep out the dark no soldier of fortune I but I feel the tension rise
there'll be no call to arms tonight
& there ain't no holy fight
I'll see you in paradise
When the change that's soon to come has taken you you know where I'll be Someone must pay the price
I ask the lord
don't let it be you or me
no soldier of fortune I
& there ain't no holy fight
I'll see you in paradise
