

Weight Of The World

The Samples

With my hands
I will build you
castles in the sand
A promise of a land
that it will keep you
from the weight of the world

They all ran away
on our horses
leaving nothing to be found they dug our dreams up from the ground and took our forces
from the weight of the world

Was life too heavy
will you be free
you may never get older it no longer hangs over so let go of
the weight of the world

Can I please have one more dance with you goodbye all I've loved and held and knew

With my hands
I will build you
and a promise of a land

from the weight of the world
so far away
