

Won't Be Back Again

The Samples

Used to win I used to lose
That's one thing you'll never really get Used to
But when I leave I'll leave for good
I left no tracks or traces 'cause no one
Understood
Now I'm gone
Won't be back again
Now I'm gone
Won't be back again
You make me run you make me cry
I gave you all I had but you're not Satisfied
You drag my name through the mud
You pull me by my cord until I unplug
Now I'm gone
Won't be back again
Now I'm gone
Won't be back again
