

So Stupid

The Saturdays

I didn't have a choice
You never gave me one
You were so perfect in my eyes, eyes, eyes

We left so hard, we cry
You are my lullaby
You had my heart to ruin my life, life, life, life

I-I-I-I'm stopping
I-I-I-I'm crawling
I should have seen it through and
I'm stupid to be true and
I-I-I-I'm running

I should feel like cursing out your name
I should feel so crazy, I'm insane
I should feel like crying 'til I die
I should feel like breaking down inside

But all I feel is so so stupid
And so foo-foo-foolish
Just as stu-stu-stupid to see
And you should feel so so stupid
And so foo-foo-foolish
That you're lo-lo-losing to me

You look me in the eye
Said I'm yours until we die
I think that we both know that you lied, lied, lied

I never realize
You would check ...
You only showed me one side, side, side, side

I-I-I-I'm stopping
I-I-I-I'm crawling
I should have seen it through and
I'm stupid to be true and
I-I-I-I'm running

I should feel like cursing out your name
I should feel so crazy, I'm insane
I should feel like crying 'til I die
I should feel like breaking down inside

But all I feel is so so stupid
And so foo-foo-foolish
Just as stu-stu-stupid to see
And you should feel so so stupid
And so foo-foo-foolish
That you're lo-lo-losing to me

I don't really care if you've given ...
Stay too long and ...
I don't really care if you've given ..., given ... ,given ...

I don't really know what you're on about

I don't understand just to figure out
Stupid and who's laughing now?

I should feel like cursing out your name
I should feel so crazy, I'm insane
I should feel like crying 'til I die
I should feel like breaking down inside

But all I feel is stu-stu-stupid
And so foo-foo-foolish
Just as stu-stu-stupid to see
And you should feel so stu-stu-stupid
And so foo-foo-foolish
Such as lo-lo-losing to me
