

Will It Ever Stop Raining

The Saw Doctors

I got sunglasses
And I got the shorts
I got factor 50
And a t-shirt of course
I've been shopping in Penney's
I've walked out to Dunne's
I'm all set for the summer
All set for the sun

Oh god will it ever stop raining?
Oh god, will it ever stop raining?

Booked into a hostel
In the town of Kilkee
We looked out the window
At the mist on the sea
We hit Ballybunion
A nice howd'you do
Chocolate and bingo
And a dose of the flu

Oh god.....

Kiss me I'm Irish
We got barred from the pub
She stole all my money
I thought it was love
And then the wind blew my ice-cream
onto the sand
I backed an Oul' Greyhound
He stopped in front of the stand

Oh god.....
