

A friend that you can trust in any midsummer's burning sky understanding of a druid
And the innocence of a child
Memories of snowflakes
And of those who understood you
There're all gone now
I only wish for you the world of good

All your precious photographs and all your favorite dreams
When the years have gone behind you
That chance to be nineteen
Children in your likeness
Of the same inspiring blood
And a man who makes you happy
I only wish for you the world of good

Chorus
The sky at night and the open sea
A clear refreshing mountain stream
Tir-na-nog and Robin Hood
I wish for you the world of good

A box of slog hand- me-downs
That follow you around
A winding road that leads you to Another stronghold town
I know you'd take me with you
If you really thought you should
But if you up and go alone
I wish for you a world of good

Chorus

Through the Screaming of your childhood
In a land that's torn apart
And the chilling cold of violent deeds
Somehow strengthens your warm heart
Your gentle firm and peaceful ways
Have long since well withstood... the darkness in this country
I only wish for you the world of good

Chorus

Oh I love you girl and I always will
You know you're part of my life still Though times have changed it's understood
I wish for you the World of Good the World of Good
