

A Little Bit More

The Scene Aesthetic

There's something different in your smile today
It captures me so helplessly, I hope it never fades
And when the sun shines on your skin
The heart in me starts caving in
There's something different in your smile today

There's something about the way you touch my hand
It breaks me down and makes me want to be a better man
Every time you say my name I lose myself entirely
There's something new about you everyday
That makes me love you

A little bit more
A little bit better
A little more yours everyday that we're together
Falling more and more in love with you
A little bit crazy
A little bit stupid
My heart was the target I was shot by cupid
Falling more and more in love with you
With you, a little more in love with you

The second I wake up I think of you
Paint a picture in my mind of what I want to do
Grab my keys and take my car
We'll drive until we see the stars
Everyday and night I spend with you
It makes me love you

A little bit more
A little bit better
A little more yours everyday that we're together
Falling more and more in love with you
A little bit crazy
A little bit stupid
My heart was the target I was shot by cupid
Falling more and more in love with you
With you, a little more in love with you

When we get all old and grey
Our kids are gone
Our hearing fades
Still I'll never lose this spark
I'll always find a way
To love you

A little bit more
A little bit better
A little more yours everyday that we're together
Falling more and more in love with you
A little bit crazy
A little bit stupid
My heart was the target I was shot by cupid
Falling more and more in love with you

A little bit more
A little bit better

A little more yours everyday that we're together
Falling more and more in love with you
A little bit crazy
A little bit stupid
My heart was the target I was shot by cupid
Falling more and more in love with you
