

If You're A Bird

The Scene Aesthetic

Been around the world and now I know that there is nothing left to see 'cause everything I want in this life is standing right in front of me and I can't seem to breathe 'cause you stole all the air from me.

Knew you for about a week and instantly saw there was something. Constantly inside my head, I can't convince myself it's nothing. So I whispered in her ear "please never ever leave me dear".

I don't wanna know. I don't wanna know. They said if I think with my heart that I won't get very far, but that can't possibly be true. I don't wanna know what life would be like without you.

If you're a bird, then I'm a bird. We'll fly around we'll cut the teather. Dead and knowing all we need, we'll find what we've built together. I'm convinced that I have found the other half of myself within you.

I don't wanna know. I don't wanna know. They said if I think with my heart that I won't get very far; that can't possibly be true. I don't wanna know what life would be like without you.

I will never lie to you. I will never want to, my heart is yours and there's nothing to hide. I guess you can say I love you, I truly do adore you. I've been hooked since the first day you caught my eye. And I promise you I'll never leave your side.

I don't wanna know. I don't wanna know. They said if I think with my heart that I won't get very far, but that can't possibly be true. I don't wanna know what life would be like without you.
