

Never Gonna Let This Go

The Scene Aesthetic

Every time I see you my heart skips then it stops If she was thirsty I would give her my last drop she doesn't judge me when I sleep till eleven o'clock

I love the way she looks in all my t-shirts and I think to myself, I should keep her she loves me unconditionally and I think that she rocks

Right now, everything is perfect cause everything is, right now, everything is perfect

she always leaves me speechless oh my god I can't believe this never ever never ever gonna let this go

every time I kiss her I just wanna go and kiss her again, and again and again get to the next one before the first even ends I make her french toast or even pancakes whatever she prefers is what I'll make my love for her I cannot fake or take for granted

Right now, everything is perfect
cause everything is, right now, everything is amazing,
it's so...

times stands still when she is near me never ever never ever gonna let this go

cause everything is, right now,
everything is amazing,
it's so...

time stands still when she is near me I've fallen in, completely never ever never ever gonna let this go

Right now, everything is amazing cause everything is, right now,
everything is perfect,
it's so...
