

Stay-awhile

The Screaming Jets

Stay awhile `cause I need you to understand my reason to bring about a

Change in mood to all the things we're going through.
Stay awhile `cause I need you to help me make a difference to the way we

Live with one another and the way to a happier heart.
So if you're ever feeling doubt,
If you're ever lost for meaning,
If you ever feel left out,
We're all going through this.
While the world turns round we all go round together. Stay awhile and hear

Me through all
I want is to see it through.
We're gonna need one another when all the shit comes pouring down.
So if you're ever feeling doubt,
If you're ever low on the meaning,
Don't ever feel left out `cause we're all going through this.
While the world turns around,
We all go around together,
No don't feel any doubt and don't get lost in what I'm talking about,
Don't you feel left out `cause we're all going through this and when it

All goes down we all go down together, we all go down together.
