Long Gone and Moved On

When's the day you start again And when the hell does you'll get over it begin I'm looking hard in the mirror But I don't fit my skin It's too much to take It's too hard to break me From the cell I'm in

Oh from this moment on I'm changing the way I feel yeah From this moment on It's time to get a real

Cause I still don't know how to act Don't know what to say Still wear the scars like it was yesterday But you're long gone and moved on Cause you're long gone But I still don't know where to start, still finding my way Still talk about you like it was yesterday But you're long gone and moved on But you're long gone, you moved on

So how'd you pick the pieces up yeah I'm barely used to saying me instead of us The elephant in the room keeps scaring off the guests It gets under my skin to see you with him And its not me that you're with

Cause I still don't know how to act Don't know what to say Still wear the scars like it was yesterday But you're long gone and moved on Cause you're long gone But I still don't know where to start, still finding my way Still talk about you like it was yesterday But you're long gone and moved on But you're long gone, you moved on

No I can't keep thinking that you're coming back No Cause I got no business knowing where you're at No And its gonna be hard yeah Cause I have to wanna heal yeah And its gonna be hard yeah The way I feel that I have to get real

I still don't know how to act Don't know what to say Still wear the scars like it was yesterday But you're long gone and moved on

The Script

But you're long gone But I still don't know where to start, still finding my way Still talk about you like it was yesterday But you're long gone and moved on But you're long gone, you moved on

But you're long gone, you moved on eh eh, oh oh But you're long gone, you moved on
