

Love Not Lovers

The Script

Another day at the weekend
You met a guy named Jack
Gave him the keys to the castle
But he never called you back
You met a guy in vacation
And you were in paradise
Only found when you got home
He had 3 kids and a wife
Swiped right on Tinder
Had a little fun on the phone
You made up but he got so drunk that you had to swipe left, had to send him home

Oh, the harder you chase it the more love will run
So tell me you're done

No more going under the covers
No more one bed to another
'Cause you will never find love you'll only find lovers
You go from one to the other
Like you think your days are numbered
But you'll never find love, you'll only find lovers
No, you'll will never find love, you'll only find lovers
No, you'll never find love, you'll only find lovers

Meet a nice guy from the local
You and him danced all night
But he was trying to get you into bed and leave you at first light
And you had a thing with a rock star, he was living up to the hype
Till got you back to the hotel, only wanted your love for just one night

Oh, I know you feel like love is on the run
But your day will come

No more going under the covers
No more one bed to another
'Cause you will never find love you'll only find lovers
You go from one to the other
Like you think your days are numbered
But you'll never find love, you'll only find lovers
No, you'll will never find love, you'll only find lovers
No, you'll never find love, you'll only find lovers

I know that it feels like love's on the run
But your day will come
Your day will come
Your day will come
Day will come

No, you'll never find love, you'll only find lovers
No, you'll never find love, you'll only find lovers
No, you'll never find love, you'll only find lovers
No, you'll never find love, you'll only find lovers
