Each Time

The Searchers

Each time you hurt me and desert me
You swear you'll never do it again
Oh each time I catch you lyin' I start cryin'
You say "It's the last time" and then

Oh you say "Oh baby, everything's gonna be fine"
And like a fool I keep forgivin' you each time

Each time I say I'll leave you, never see you
You tell me you'll make it all up to me
Oh each time you say "Let's try it just once more"
'Cause I'm all you're livin' for, you'll change, I'll see

Then you call me baby, everything's gonna be fine
Then like a fool I keep forgivin' you each time

Wish that I felt just like I did before
There was a time I could walk out the door
But I can't go now though I know it's wrong
'Cause good or bad it's with you I belong

Then you say "Oh baby, everything's gonna be fine"
No matter what you do, I keep forgivin' you
Each time, each time, each time, each time
