The Secret Handshake

It's kind of sad
To think about
The times I left you
Its kind of sad
To think about
The times you've seen me off
As a kid I always knew
That something wasn't right

I'm counting the times
That we've started over
Counting the times
That we've started over.

I've let it go
So many times
I don't deserve you
I've read your thoughts
And it amazes me
That you still want me here
You still want me here

Counting the times
That you've started over.
Counting the times that
We've started over.
I've let you down
So many times
You've seen me off
But thats alright

Your all I had
I said it's true
You wanna tell me
I don't need you, I don't need you

Counting the times
That we started over [x4]

I said its right
I said its true
I do need you
And I know why
Its true to me
I want you back

And I see everything I ever wanted here
