

I Lied About Everything

The Secret Handshake

I'm not sure of what I'm thinking maybe I think too much swimming round inside my pitchball life not reading all the books I'll tell you what they say one of them or all of them today

(2x)

and no, she doesn't know the dates she'd never know the weight and I'd really like to see you one last time all this time was wasted on you so burn the lights and breaking bridges is what we're seeing I didn't think this would or could ever happen to me at all now that I am the one I'd really rather not be anything anything at all and you will call about the things they don't matter at all, at all, at all you will follow around the things

(4x)

and no, she doesn't know the dates
