The Shadows

We both take the hardest punches And collect black eyes just to prove it Still we passed by just like strangers And we speak just like the closest enemies Enemies Woah, in the shadows of our life We can fall into the night unscarred Woah, in the shadows of our life We can never let it go this far Somehow my words that are useless Still I pull my lip down to my fuckin' chest Yeah, my jaw is Tired from waiting to say the things that you should hear You should hear Woah, in the shadows of our life We can fall into the night unscarred Woah, in the shadows of our life We can never let it go this far After all, still the same These empty promises, seem to never change There's a smile on my face and it's 2: 55 a.m. And this cramp in my wrist Puts me back asleep till it all comes around again With a closed fist With a closed fist With a closed fist With a closed fist Woah, in the shadows of our life We can fall into the night unscarred Woah, in the shadows of our life We can never let it go this far, woah
