Spacemilk

The Sheila Divine

in this space so infinite a sea of milk we float like wood as we wait, rescue me bring me home, give me peace if i let you off would you leave for good? i hope not as we lose our bodies fold a subtle change until we're cold

do you see neglect in me? i feel the storm, an old fury as we wait, rescue me bring me home, give me peace if i let you off would you leave for good? would you take your time or run like hell? would you know my name? would you know my name? would you sink or swim? if i let you off would you leave for good? i hope not
