

So Now What

The Shins

I had this crazy idea
Somehow we'd coast to the end
Change lives in every direction tonight
Guess we'll just begin again

Oh girl, it's been a while
Since we met, out there in the cold
Seems so long ago
It's not hard to imagine
The lives we used to have
When the lights were on low.
So now what?

I had this crazy idea
Somehow we'd coast to the end
Change lives in every direction tonight
Guess we'll just begin again
I think you know you're my best friend.

It's sort of an unspoken rule
That things would not turn out the way you planned
You know that I could handle all of that
If I could still take your hand.
Would you still think I am strong
If I admit that I was wrong?
So now what?

I had this crazy idea
Somehow we'd coast to the end
Change lives in every direction tonight
Guess we'll just begin again
I hope you know you're my best friend.

I had this crazy idea
Somehow we'd coast to the end
Change lives in every direction tonight

Guess we'll just begin again (7x)
