

Run Away

The Slackers

What you gonna do when they come for
Your old man, and they come for
Your best friend, and they come for you?

Then you better run, run away,
Run down the alley up away,
Smoke your cigarettes, drink your brew.

You better...
Run, run away, you got to run away.
Run, run away, but you'll never get away.
Run, run away, you got to run away.
Run, run away, but you'll never get a...

You've got to get away.
You've got to get away.
You've got to get away from salvation.

What you gonna do when they ask your
Mamma when you go, and they ask your
Sister when you go, and they just don't know?

Then you better duck in the bush, thorn,
Hiding with your papers and a pistol
Waiting for the man, them a come, run Joe.

You better...
Run, run away, you got to run away.
Run, run away, but you'll never get away.
Run, run away, you got to run away.
Run, run away, but you'll never get a...

You've got to get away.
You've got to get away.
You've got to get away from salvation.

Hide.

What you gonna do when they ask your
Mamma when you go, and they ask your
Sister when you go, and they just don't know?

Then you better duck in the bush, thorn,
Hiding with your papers and a pistol
Waiting for the man, them a come, run Joe.

Run, run away, you got to run away.
Run, run away, but you'll never get away.
Run, run away, you got to run away.
Run, run away, but you'll never get a...

You've got to get away.
You've got to get away.
You've got to get away from salvation.

You've got to get away.
You've got to get away.

You've got to get away from salvation.
