

Set the Girl Free

The Slackers

Every time I see your face
Oh don't you know that I can't stop thinkin' about you
And every time I caught your stare
Well I was thinking, I can't live without you
But every time I called you up
Your daddy said that you're not home
And I fear, you're sittin' there
Just waiting in your room alone

Well maybe I can take you out
Some time we'll go see a movie
Yes I know you've got your secrets
But you can tell them to me

You don't have to say that you want me
And you don't have to say that you need me
If you just tell your daddy to call me
And I will tell him all so sweetly...

Set the girl free (Set the girl free...)
Set her to me
Set the girl right (Set the girl right...)
And set her tonight
Well I'll be waitin'
I'll be waitin'
I'll be waitin' all...

Well every time I called you up
Your daddy said that you're not home
And I fear, you're sittin' there
Just waiting in your room alone
You're waiting in your room alone...

Set the girl free (Set the girl free...)
Set her to me
Set the girl right (Set the girl right...)
And set her tonight

Set the girl free (Set the girl free...)
Set her to me
Come on and set the girl free (Set the girl free...)
Set her to me
Well I'll be waitin'
I'll be waitin'
I'll be waitin' all...
