

The Question

The Slackers

When you say you love me
Do you mean what I mean when I say the same thing?
'Cause you say you love me
All of the time.

I'm only asking, only asking
'Cause we're so much alike, maybe more than I like.
And is your love, your love
As weak as mine?

Will you love me forever?
Or am I just a fool?
Will we always be together?
Will I grow old, grow old with you?

So if you say you love me
Would you promise you'll stay after love's gone away?
'Cause I know without you,
I might die.

I might die girl.

I'm only asking, only asking,
'Cause I wonder at night when you turn out the light
Is your love, your love
As weak as mine?

Yeah girl, you know I still love you.

Is your love as weak as mine?
Is your love as weak as mine?
Is your love...
