

The Same Everyday

The Slackers

Same, same, same, same, same everyday
Same, same, same, same, same everyday
Same, same, same, same, same everyday
Same, same, same, same, same everyday

I take a step on the street I'm walkin'
It's the same everyday
I think about all the shit I'm talkin'
It's the same everyday
I take a seat on the train you're ridin'
It's the same everyday
Make it back to the room you hide in
It's the same everyday

Same, same, same, same, same everyday
Same, same, same, same, same everyday
Same, same, same, same, same everyday
Same, same, same, same, same everyday

I look around the place I'm livin'
It's the same everyday
I take a look at the grief that's givin'
It's the same everyday
The face in the mirror just keeps on starin'
It's the same everyday
I said, hey man, what's that silly suit you're wearin'
It's the same everyday

Well, why should it be different?
Not a damn thing has changed
The same pieces of the same old puzzle
They've just rearranged

Same everyday

Same everyday

Same everyday

Same everyday

I take a step on the street I'm walkin'
It's the same everyday
I think about all the shit you're talkin'
It's the same everyday
Take a seat, take a seat, take a seat on the train you're ridin'
It's the same everyday
I make it back, make it back to the room, I'm hidin'
It's the same everyday

Same, same, same, same everyday
Same, same, same, same everyday
Same, same, same, same everyday
Same, same, same
It's the same, same, same, same, same everyday
Same, same, same, same, same everyday
Same, same, same, same, same everyday

Same, same, same, same, same everyday
Same, same, same, same, same everyday
Same, same, same, same, same everyday
Same, same, same, same, same everyday
Same, same, same, same, same everyday