

Tonight

The Slackers

You know you make me feel alright (Girl, you make me feel alright)
You know you make me feel alright (Yeah, you make me feel alright)
You know you make me feel alright
If only for tonight

Tonight is all I can give you
I've got to take that morning train
When you get that feeling within you
I know we'll do it again and again and again

No I don't want no other girl
At least not for tonight
Let me just get inside your world
You know I'll make you feel alright

Maybe I'll write you a letter
Or just drop you a line (How you doin' mamma)
Girl, we've got to get together
Even if it's only for one night

(I wanna love ya)
One, two, three, four, five times tonight
Five, six, seven, eight, nine times tonight
Ten, twenty, thirty, forty-five times tonight
I just wanna love you, baby
