

Two Face

The Slackers

Two face (two face, two face)
Man, you know you're such a disgrace
And two face
I'm warnin' you, this very day
'Cause you said you were my friend
But I fear not that that was it
Two face, man, I'm gonna shoot you down

Two face
You gave me smiles and I believed them
But I asked you to warn my brother
And you decieved him
Had I known it was sink or swim
From the moment I let you in
Whoah two face, You never would have come this far

Two face
You said you were my brother
Oh, but, two face,
You must have meant another
'Cause I held out my hand for aid
But you cut it witrh a dirty blade
Oh two face, man, I'm gonna shoot you down

Two face (two face, two face)
You said you were my brother
Oh, but, two face,
You must have meant another
'Cause I jumped in when you were drownin'
But you jumped down and held me down in
The water, just like a baptism day
I said man, you better watch your way, yeah
I said man, you better watch your way, yeah
Well man, you better watch your way...

(Oh you're such a two face)
(And I'm gonna shoot you down)
