

Favorite Shade Of Blue

The Softies

I have a yellow and navy sundress
Maybe I'll wear it today
It reminds me of you, your favorite shade of blue
Now the hem is coming out

I think I'll walk to town today
I'll go the long way
The pavement meets my shoes, I'll go anywhere I choose
I imagine you are right behind

Summertime falls from the trees
Autumn is here and you're not
I've made you a ghost, I miss you the most
Of anyone that's gone

Life without you is second best
I guess I'll get by
I'm lonelier today than I'd dare to say
To anyone who asks

I have a yellow and navy sundress
It reminds me of you
