A Reason

The Sorrow

Follow the path to ruin Sail into the storm Dead rivers flowing Towards an ocean that is black

Poisoned is what we are Cursed and condemned is what we are

Standing on the edge of this world Waiting for the last goodbye Cry for life in this blackened world

Give me a reason to close my eyes I crave for angels until my world dies

How could we go on this far?..

Keep us away from this destiny Guide us to fortune out of the misery

Burn the bridge behind us With fire in our hearts Pave the road we walk on With ashes of our sins

Poisoned is what we are Cursed and condemned is what we are

Standing on the edge of this world Waiting for the last goodbye Cry for life in this blackened world

Give me a reason to close my eyes I crave for angels until my world dies

I crave for angels
