

Buried In The Deep

The Sorrow

You showed me how to live for the first time in my life
Nothing is forever as we change
You came into my life and turned darkness into light
With your divine fire set my heart ablaze

Hope
The only thing I keep in my heart
Fear
From losing you tears me apart

I never felt this way as far as I remember
There is no together, you turned away
We left a trail of tears that washed away this love
From this state of mourning I need to break free

All of my dreams buried in the deep
Shadows of you they are haunting me
Will I ever free myself from you
Still I never turn my back on you

Hope
The only thing I keep in my heart
Fear
From losing you tears me apart
I
Will cherish what I learned from you
Solace
In mind helps me to get through

Will I ever free myself from you
Still I never turn my back on you

Hope
The only thing I keep in my heart
Fear
From losing you tears me apart
I
Will cherish what I learned from you
Solace
In mind helps me to get through

And I will never forget you
