The Sorrow

This is love, this is sacrifice
This is still what I have
All the words are the confidence
I am buried alive

Faith, this world is a dark place
I cannot find a meaning
I can't forget your face

Pain is all that still remains
'Cause you have ripped my heart out
You have broken wings

Theses days it's hard to breath
I feel like I'm drowning
I will no longer believe in my life, in myself
This is my last retreat
This love will be my end
I cannot longer believe in my life, in myself

I hate the picture of you
Pictures of you
I remember again

I lived my own life just for you
Wasted for you
I'm bleeding through

Faith, this world is a dark place
I cannot find a meaning
I can't forget your face

Pain is all that still remains
'Cause you have ripped my heart out
You have broken wings

You

God knows of everything
Of everything we are
Sometimes we will not forgive
You are one of us
We're all forsaken
We're all dead

Theses days it's hard to breath
I feel like I'm drowning
I will no longer believe in my life, in myself
This is my last retreat
This love will be my end
I cannot longer believe in my life, in myself

I hate the picture of you
Pictures of you
I remember again

I lived my own life just for you

Wasted for you

You

Blow away my heart
What takes us to blame
Never thought I'm mistaken
And I could sweat of my heart
Blow away my heart
Never thought I'm mistaken
And I could sweat of my heart
