

From This Life

The Sorrow

I feel lifeless while I burst
Time is running no return

This is the collapse
This is the fire in you
Do you feel secure now
Serenity
Never got forgiveness from this life
You are the fire before the march of flames
Out of the ashes a phoenix will rise
And spread its wings of eternal light

Forever I am abandoned
And I am buried alive
Hold on you will find freedom
From this life of demise

Lost forever in my sins
Now or never
I can feel that this is the collapse
This is the fire in you
Do you feel secure now
Serenity
Never got forgiveness from this life
You are the fire before the march of flames
Out of the ashes a phoenix will rise
And spread its wings of eternal light

Forever I am abandoned
And I am buried alive
Hold on you will find freedom
From this life of demise

This is welfare
You are facing my revenge
My broken heart lies on the ground
