

Raising The Devil

The Sorrow

Blind and without will we're pacing
On this earth
Destined to face the end
Now we're waiting for salvation
But there is only misery

Raising the devil
We are born blind
Raising the devil
The end will come
For he's about to rise

In lowliness we stand, but it's too late
Forgiveness is the key
Redemption
We're lost in our sins, there's
No way back
We must accept our fate
Perdition

Burn all our marrows of treason
Yeah, we will burn troughout history
Now we're waiting for salvation
But there is only misery

For those who care
For those who don't
The end will come
It's up to you
