

Saviour Welcome Home

The Sorrow

Blood is running cold
Enchantment by the haunted souls
Savior welcome home
Divided by the strings of conscience

The traitors of integrity
Have ruined my fate
Be my

Savior in times of fear
A burden so hard to bear
Heed my cries
The curse laid on my heart
Like a pistol grip
Extinguishing my iron will to live
Feels like a sinking ship

Hatred steals my hope
Impureness is taking its toll
Savior welcome home
Divided by the strings of conscience
Be my savior

Be my savior

The traitors of integrity
Have ruined my fate
Be my savior

Savior in times of fear
A burden so hard to bear
Heed my cries
The curse laid on my heart
Like a pistol grip
Extinguishing my iron will to live
Feels like a sinking ship
