

The Dagger Thrust

The Sorrow

Broken Memories are calling
My days are numbered, I'm insecure
Shelter, there's no place to find you
The falling darkness will cover me

Demise, inside I feel my scars will never heal
I cherish forever
My past, it's a treasure

Demise, inside I feel my scars will never heal
I cherish forever
My past, it's a treasure

Prepare for the devastation

Embrace humiliation

Fallen angels of abhorrence
As their blood is spilling the sky turns red
Arrows that won't miss their targets
A shot in my head
The death of me

After all these years of sadness I won't give in Blisters on my hands keep growing

Demise, inside I feel my scars will never heal
I cherish forever
My past, it's a treasure

Demise, inside I feel my scars will never heal
I cherish forever
My past, it's a treasure

Come on!

Fire is burning
Fire is burning red

Vultures are waiting for my death
