

Thirteen Years

The Sorrow

Surender our broken minds
The tears that we have shed
The secret of keeping hope
Our fear will never fade

The chains of fate unbroken
Ablaze the sails of sorrow
The last crusade of mankind
When worlds collide
The end is near

In league with the devil
There is no turning back
Your hunger for power
The oppression of life
Behold what have we done
How long will we carry on
Betray the sinner
Forgive the savior

The point of no return
We are condemned forever
There is no place for glory
We will be drowned in seas of doom

In league with the devil
There is no turning back
Your hunger for power
The oppression of life
Behold what have we done
How long will we carry on
Betray the sinner
Forgive the savior

Surender our broken minds
The tears that we have shed
The secret of keeping hope
Our fear will never fade
