

Panic

The Sounds

Underworld's going to take you, punch your dreams, destroy your future

The devil's coming back upon you
Hide your children he's above you

Something just ain't right, I can see it in your eyes, cause you're crazy

The devil's coming back to get you
So gratitude ain't nothing for you

So wake up
you're wrong
Nothing's on your back so why fight it.

Breathing down my neck I can't believe, this is sick, what do you want from me?

Hungry like a rattlesnake, you know I'm gonna make it great

The devil's coming back upon you
Hide your children he's above you

So wake up
you're wrong
Nothing's on your back so why fight it (2x)

Something just ain't right, I can see it in your eyes, like panic panic panic (2x)

So wake up
you're wrong
Nothing's on your back so why fight it (3x)
Why fight it
So why fight it
