

Take It the Wrong Way

The Sounds

These dark cold eyes
They don't see too good
But I don't know
And I'd be a fool to take your words

I see a stone cold heart
A shadow of a soul
Of a man I used to know
But I'd be a fool to take your words

When I tell you how I feel
You take it the wrong way
I try to show you that it's real
But you take it the wrong way

Don't know what to do
You wear your heart on your sleeve
And I just can't believe
The things that you do

When I tell you how I feel
You take it the wrong way

Has your heart gone cold
Turned away from something new
And would you have a place to go
You said I'm lost here without you

I know this path you're on
I've walked a 1000 miles before
With a man I used to know
But I'd be a fool to take his words

When I tell you how I feel
You take it the wrong way
I try to show you that it's real
But you take it the wrong way

Don't know what to do
You wear your heart on your sleeve
And I just can't believe
The things that you do

When I tell you how I feel
You take it the wrong way

When I tell you how I feel
You take it the wrong way
Yeah, you take it the wrong way
I try to show you that it's real
But you take it the wrong way

Don't know what to do
You wear your heart on your sleeve
And I just can't believe
The things that you do

When I tell you how I feel
You take it the wrong way
