

Honest I Do

The Spinners

Whenever you feel your world is falling down
Love just can't be found to help you make it through
Nothing will do
Whenever you feel life turn a back on you
And all you wanna do is sit at home and cry
My oh my
I'll be your friend and lover
Comfort you in every way, oh baby
I never thought I'd ever love someone
The way that I love you
Honest, I do need love and you do too
Honest, I do need love and you do too, oh
Honest, I do need love and you do too
Whenever you toss and turn all through the night
No, your love life just ain't right
'Cause it follows you, oh girl
Whenever a day goes by that you don't cry
Oh, why don't you just dry your eyes?
I'm here to end your sorrow and wait till tomorrow, baby
I'll be your friend and lover
Comfort you in every way, baby
I'd never thought I'd ever love someone
The way that I love you
Honest, I do need love and you do too
Honest, I do need love and you do too
Honest, I do need love and you do too
