

Hurry

The Starting Line

I wrote a note to my future ghost
Quoting words I've spoke
And that I meant only half the time
Now I only speak between grinding teeth
And my constant sleep
Cause that's the pace that I've got to go

So run along cause you had best be on your way

Don't worry just hurry
Cause you have got a lot to lose here
But I'm catching up on that lost sleep
Do I have a lot to lose

I am a man with my task at hand
And my swollen glands
And just a couple of days to go
Until I'm on a stage
With my voice and bass
And all my choices made
And all the places I've got to go

So run along cause you had best be on your way

Don't worry just hurry
Cause you have got a lot to lose here
But I'm catching up on that lost sleep
Do I have a lot to lose
Don't you just worry just hurry
Cause you have got a lot to lose here
But I'm catching up on that lost sleep
Do I have a lot to lose

So run along cause you had best be on your way
Well run along cause you had best be on your way
Well hey hey hey

Now don't you worry just hurry
Cause you have got a lot to lose here
But I'm catching up on that lost sleep
Do I have a lot to lose

Don't you worry just hurry
Cause you have got a lot to lose here
But I'm catching up on that lost sleep
Do I have a lot to lose
