The Starting Line

I've got stars in my great big sky I shall gaze upon without leaving small ones behind Because they're harder to find Some were satellites, others planes Some were twinkling while others were fading away But they're all one of a kind Oh it's not that interesting But I'd like to keep it a secret So I'll have something left to give It's not that difficult when you've got a luck of this kind We've got to take advantage, we've got such limited time Oh I wonder, oh I wonder How long to take me to die Oh it's not that interesting But I'd like to keep it a secret So I'll have something left to give And I'll hear my children and grandchildren sing Blah la la da da da Blah la la la da da Blah la la la da da Blah la la da da da It's not that interesting but I'd like to keep it a secret So I'll have something left to give In my remaining years When I am old and plain lazy I'll have a little something left to give To all those who loved me so much I'd like to return the favor And have something left to give And I'll hear my children and grandchildren sing Blah la la da da da Blah la la da da da It's not that difficult when you've got a luck of this kind Blah la la da da da Blah la la la da da To all those who loved me so much, I'd like to return the favor Blah la la da da da Blah la la da da da I wonder oh i wonder, how long to take me to die Blah la la da da da Blah la la da da da It's not that interesting but I'd like to keep it a secret And have something left to give
