

Eve

The Statler Brothers

Eve don't you know that God loves you so
He only asks that you not disobey
He gave you the world, what were you thinkin' girl?
To let the Devil take it all away

Don't eat the fruit in the garden Eve
It wasn't in in Gods natural plan
You were only a rib and look at what you did
To Adam the father of man

Eve I've hear it said that no one would be dead
If only you had picked the other tree
From the garden you were barred
And there's an Angel standin' guard
To protect the tree of life eternally

Don't eat the fruit in the garden Eve
It wasn't in in Gods natural plan
You were only a rib and look at what you did
To Adam the father of man
