

Peacemaker

The SteelDrivers

I'm a cool 3 lbs of cold blue steel
I shoot even deader than the way I feel made to fit right in your hand why i'll never understand

I coulda been a hammer or a railroad spike I coulda been a train rollin through the night but they gave my voice such a terrible sound that I wish they'd left me in the ground

I'm a peacemaker
don't know how I got my name
I'm a peacemaker
if I don't deserve the credit
why do I deserve the blame

When the lion lays down with the lamb then you won't find me in nobody's hand till that time I will remain till the sinners lay down with the saints

I'm a peacemaker
don't know how I got my name
I'm a peacemaker
if I don't deserve the credit
why do I deserve the blame

I'm a peacemaker
don't know how I got my name
I'm a peacemaker
if I don't deserve the credit
why do I deserve the blame

I'm a cool 3 lbs of cold blue steel
I shoot even deader than the way I feel
